The following motions were passed –

1. That the Auditor's Report for 2018-2019 be accepted.
2. That the NVTa appoint Clearline Chartered Professional Accountants as Auditor for the upcoming year 2019-2020.

The NVTa would like to thank outgoing NVTa President, Robin Deleurme, who leaves the union office after an outstanding run on the NVTa Executive, from 2012 to 2020, in positions ranging from Member-at-Large, Treasurer, Local Representative, First Vice President, and President. For Robin's commitment to upholding the Collective Agreement, to ensuring that our teachers are always fairly represented and supported, and for ably speaking for North Vancouver members on the Provincial level, the membership extends its gratitude and thanks.

Also leaving their positions on the NVTa Executive this year – Susanne Simon, who concludes three years as Alternate Local Rep, Chris Miller, who wraps his two-years as Member-at-Large, and Raphael Choi, who served as this year's NVTa Secretary. Thank you all for your service.

Former NVTa President, Martin Stuiblé, who served as Past President on the Executive this year, will continue his work on the Executive as Member-at-Large next year.
