Indigenous Education Scholarship Application (2023-2024)

The North Vancouver Teachers' Association (NVTA) is offering one (1) One Thousand Dollar ($1,000) Indigenous Education Scholarship in 2023-2024. In order to be eligible for the NVTA Indigenous Education Scholarship, the student must identify as Indigenous and be graduating from the Grade 12 program of a secondary school in the North Vancouver School District. The student must also be planning to enter a post-secondary program in the following year.

The following criteria will be considered by the NVTA Executive Committee in making the selection for the NVTA Indigenous Education Scholarship:

- i. Intention by the graduate to enrol in a post-secondary program, with priority given to a graduate intending to enrol in Indigenous language studies, Indigenous studies or a teacher education program;
- ii. Academic qualifications;
- iii. Community engagement.

The information you provide on your application will be reviewed by the NVTA Executive Committee and all information will be kept confidential.

The application form can be found on the NVTA website: www.nvta.ca.
